Local committees are requested to make arrangements for the members.

In another week the independent movement will be found to have been an unprofitable trick.

The whisky league is so much interested in the prohibition campaign that it is contributing money for that purpose.

A voice from the political tombs is that of Samuel J. Tilden, when he told the democracy of New York that he endorsed their ticket. But New York will go for Folger all the same.

Governor Crittenden would have pardoned Frank James already, but it is understood that a Missouri jury will acquit him and give him a kind benediction so that the governor can spare his sympathy for some other criminal.

The Milwaukee Sunday Telegraph says: "The republicans of the third district of Rock county did themselves credit when they renominated Hon. John Conely for the assembly. He is safe and able as a legislator, and not afraid to trust the people to vote upon questions of great importance."

This is the last week of the campaign, and the republicans are urged to put forth every effort for the success of the entire republican ticket. A thorough canvass on the part of the republicans and a full vote of the party will forever put at rest the independent movement in this county and district.

The republican state central committee has issued a circular regarding the constitutional amendments to be voted for next week. There are four amendments which require separate ballots, and these ballots must be deposited in separate boxes. Inspectors of election should bear this in mind, so that there will be no mistake made in depositing the ballots.

The Gazette publishes a statement prepared by Mr. Henry H. Smith, journal clerk of the house of representatives, regarding the record of Mr. Williams in congress. It is an excellent campaign document for the republicans, and should be carefully read. Those who read it will see that the attacks of the independents at Congressman William's record are knocked to the winds.

Dispatches have been sent to some papers to the effect that Mrs. C. C. Washburn, wife of the late Governor Washburn, is likely to recover from her insanity. For more than thirty years she has been confined in an asylum for the insane. Her improvement has been so marked during the past few months that she has been taken to Boston and placed in charge of a specialist who hopes to effect a permanent cure.

The State Journal of last Saturday, in speaking of the appointment of Judge Bennett to fill the place made vacant by the death of Judge Conger, says: "For more than thirty-four years he has practiced his profession in the supreme, circuit and federal courts of the state, and has during all that time been regarded as one of the ablest practitioners. His public career has been a most honorable one, and in private life his character is without spot or blemish."

The report comes that the democratic convention for the first assembly district endorsed the nomination of Mr. J. B. Dow, on Friday. Well, it is surprising to what straights the democrats are put when they will endorse a prohibition candidate. It is like the independent republicans swallowing an ultra democrat. But it makes no difference in this case. Mr. Huntly will go in by a big majority, if the republicans turn out and vote.

Madame Christine Nilsson, whose voice has almost gained her immortality, says she will not cross the ocean again when she returns home after her American tour. She is tired of work, tired of the applause of the multitude that flock to hear her, and tired of the public life which her position gives her. She wants to go to London, and like Jenny Lind, get away from public gaze, and establish a home—not to give up music, but to do for her own pleasure and charity what she has done for money.

Senator Sawyer was thrown out of his buggy nearly two weeks ago, and sustained some slight injuries. A report reached Madison the latter part of last week by the Chicago Times that the senator was badly hurt, and a great sensation was produced among the politicians over the news. But the latest report says that he has recovered from his injuries, and is on the streets of Oshkosh attending to his business.

Lon Williams, the outlaw, who, in connection with his brother Ed. Williams, assassinated Sheriff Coleman and his brother, of Pepin county, has been arrested in Kansas. Lon and Ed. Williams, who, in reality are the Maxwells, had been outlaws for some time before the Coleman murder. Their crimes have been many and daring, and were being arrested when they murdered the Colemans. The sheriff of Pepin county has made application to Governor Rusk for requisition on the governor of Kansas for the custody of the criminal.

There are some independent republicans who are determined to keep on grumbling about the president of the United States taking a hand in politics. They will have him engaged in the canvass whether he is or not, and of course they insist that he is working in the interest of the "machine." President Arthur is not doing campaign work, neither does he say one word or do a single act from which any one can draw the conclusion that he is doing the work of a politician. It is about time that these "independent" republican papers were independent enough to be honest, and let common sense and truth once in a while creep in their columns. A paper or an individual that kicks one portion of the republican party and pretends to support another portion, and thereby expects to help the republican cause, makes a very ridiculous display of honor and consistency.

A WORD TO THE PROHIBITIONISTS.

It will be taken for granted that the prohibitionists are sincere in their desire to see a prohibitory amendment submitted to, and adopted by, the people of Wisconsin; and it will likewise be taken for granted that they are prompted by the highest motives in running separate county, assembly, senatorial, and congressional candidates. But the great point is, are they working the best they can for the cause of temperance and prohibition? It seems to a careful observer and a candid mind that they are not.

In the first place their zeal is intemperate. What they evidently desire is a submission of the prohibitory amendment to the people, but how are they working for it? In many counties and congressional districts they are doing that which has a tendency to defeat the very object they hope to accomplish. It should be the purpose of the temperance people to throw their votes where they would do the most good, and would be most likely to aid the temperance cause. But are they doing that?

In this congressional district they nominated a candidate and are making an active canvass right in the face of the fact that the republican candidate, Mr. Williams, is not only a temperance man, but is in favor of submitting a prohibitory amendment to the people. Mr. Blackman is not more temperate than Mr. Williams, is not more desirous of seeing the question submitted than Mr. Williams, and if he was elected to congress could not exercise half the influence for the temperance cause than the present member. These facts are bold and stubborn and cannot be crushed by any reasoning the prohibitionists can adopt. They cannot reply that Mr. Williams is not in sympathy with their movement, for he is, and has been, an opened and pronounced advocate of all practical temperance measures, and more than that, he is a living example of temperance itself.

They are also opposing Dr. Lord, the republican candidate for the state senate, when he not only voted for a submission of the question to the people two years ago, but worked for it, and should the question come before the legislature next winter he will vote for it again; and yet the prohibitionists are planning for his defeat! They are applying the same methods in the first assembly district, when the facts exist that Mr. Huntly, the republican candidate, is in favor of the submission. These facts cannot but impress the intelligent voter with the idea that the prohibitionists are intemperate and are working against the interests of the cause they champion.

The republican party deserves better treatment at the hands of the prohibitionists than it is now receiving. It is the party from which comes all temperance reform and hope of prohibition, and to oppose it as many of the prohibitionists are now doing, will break down all the barriers which now exist for the suppression of intemperance.

In proof of this it may be stated that the democratic party and liquor associations are always delighted when they see a separate temperance ticket in the field They know it weakens the republican ticket, strengthens the democratic ticket, and thereby tends to prohibit prohibition. When the temperance people come to vote, let them remember these things.

PARLIAMENT.

Lord Randolph Churchill Coming Up as the Conservative Leader.

LONDON, Oct. 30.—Jennings' special says: Business in parliament here moves so slowly as to discourage the Ministerialists, scarcely any approach having been made to the settlement of the vexed question of the closure. The chief incident of the session thus far has been the return to the house and active political life of Lord Randolph Churchill. Mr. Leonard Jerome's son-in-law has completely recovered from his long illness. He has had to undergo several most painful surgical operations, but I am glad to be able to say that the disease is now finally conquered.

Lord Randolph's position in the house of commons is rapidly becoming one of great importance, many members of the Conservative party, who chafe at a policy of inaction, believing that he will eventually oust Sir Stafford Northcote out of the leadership of the present opposition. There is said to be developing a strong Radical opposition to the government upon the ground of Mr. Gladstone's Egyptian policy, but so long as the caucus machine is under its present efficient control no such element of opposition can produce much effect. None the less, however, do great numbers of Radicals sympathize—and that openly—with Sir Wilfrid Lawson's declaration in the house of commons, in the debate of night before last, that the vote of thanks ought to have been moved to Arabi Bey and the Egyptian army for running away, instead of to Sir Garnet Wolseley and the British troops, and that all the most cherished principles of radicalism have been trampled under foot in our dealings with Egypt.

EGYPT.

Another Reign of Terror in Alexandria.

ALEXANDRIA, Oct. 30.—Much uneasiness is felt among the high class of Egyptian residents in consequence of the wholesale arrests of persons charged with complicity in Arabi's rebellion. The situation is, in fact, almost equivalent to a reign of terror. Advantage has been taken of the unsettled condition of affairs by prominent officials, Sheiks and Mudirs, and even by unofficial persons, to revenge private quarrels, in many cases of long standing, by informing against their adversaries as having been engaged in the Alexandria massacre, or in the burning and sacking of the city, or charging them with participation in the armed revolt. It is believed that Riaz Pasha, the present vizier or prime minister of the khedive's government, is using his official position to further schemes of private vengeance. Two editors of Arabic journals were recently exiled from Egypt by order of Riaz Pasha for no other offense than having published three years ago articles criticising the policy of that minister. Their lives were only saved by the intercession of Sultan Pasha, whom Riaz dare not antagonize at present. Many innocent persons have been arrested on the merest pretext, and no native Egyptian possessed of either money or position feels himself safe while the existing state of affairs continues.

THE NICKEL-PLATE.

A Claim that the Lehigh Valley Railroad Company, and Not Vanderbilt, is the Purchaser.

CHICAGO, Oct. 30.

The gossip in relation to the mysterious sale of the "Nickel-Plate" road still continues, the latest report being that it has fallen into the hands of the Lehigh Valley Railroad company. This rumor gained credence yesterday in circles which gave it color of truth, and consequently a reporter sought out Mr. E. H. Packer, vice president of the latter company, and inquired as to the truth of the statement.

"I would prefer not to say anything about the matter just at present. I will know better in a few days."

"What is your opinion?"

"Oh, I would not be surprised if such a thing had been done. Still I don't think you had better say anything about the matter at present. Wait till it assumes a more definite shape."

"But reports are already in circulation to this effect, and if they are not true I would like to deny them."

"Oh, I guess you hadn't better deny it. There have been some negotiations for the purchase of this road by interests identical with ours, but, as I said before, I don't like you to say it is settled when it is not, as yet."

"But there is a general understanding as to how it will end?"

"Well, yes; very likely. We certainly propose to have a road into Chicago of our own."

The Star-Route Cases.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—The star-route scandal now seems likely to break out in a new place. According to the latest story, several officers and clerks in the department of justice are to be discharged for revealing the secrets of the prosecution to the defense. Several persons are said to be implicated in this business. During the investigation and trial of the cases it was noticed that the defense had important information as early as the government itself, and this led to an examination which, it is said, disclosed the fact that the clerks were betraying the department secrets. The scandal involves some quite prominent officers of the department.

Fires.

The Maquoketa (Iowa) woolen mills burned Saturday night, involving a loss of $15,000. The building at Winnipeg in which the branch of the Bank of Montreal is located took fire yesterday, and $20,000 damage was done, the bank being the principal sufferer. W. P. Hays & Son's sash, door and blind factory at Dover, N. H., burned; loss, $37,000; insurance, $19,000

Maggie Hennecke.

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 30.—It is now believed that little Maggie Hennecke, whose disappearance caused such a sensation last week, was drowned. The hat that she wore when she left home was found by the river side.

The Duke of Brunswick.

BERLIN, Oct. 30.—The duke of Brunswick is seriously ill. It is believed that he can not recover.

International Copyright.

LONDON, Oct. 30.—The Athenæum revives the copyright question, publishing a letter from Clark Russell quoting Vast's statement that the Harpers have sold immense editions of Russell's sea stories. But Russell says: "I have never, as I live to swear it, received one single farthing from America; have never been honored by so much as a thank you." Yet The Athenæum insists that American publishers are most anxious for international copyright, and asserts that the pressure from the Typographical union prevents the state department from submitting a treaty to the senate.

THE POSTOFFICE.

Comparisons Very Flattering to America.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 30.—The report of the superintendent of foreign mails for the last fiscal year shows that 452,000 more pounds were transported than the previous year, not including Canadian mail. The cost for ocean transportation was $41,000 more than last year. The amounts estimated as necessary for the foreign mail service of the fiscal year 1883 and 1884 are as follows: Transportation of mail, $350,000; balances due foreign countries, including a proportionate share of the expenses of the international bureau, postal union and other items, $60,000; total, $410,000. A number of interesting statistics are included in the report. It is shown, for instance, that in the number of postoffices the United States ranks first, with 42,089 offices, the next highest being 14,440 in Great Britain. Switzerland leads in respect to number of offices for each inhabitant, with one office for every 993 inhabitants, the United States having one office for every 1,167 inhabitants. France and Germany have by far the largest number of letter boxes for the reception of correspondence. Great Britain conveyed the largest number of letters—1,176,422,600, the United States ranking second, with 847,830,029 letters. The United States appears, however, to have conveyed nearly double as many postal-cards and newspapers as were sent in any foreign country. The United States has the largest number of miles of railway transportation, 95,930,491 miles. With respect to gross postal revenues, those of Germany aggregated 100,226,310 francs, the United States 176,453,027 francs, and Great Britain 168,835,765 francs.

AN ENGINE OF DEATH.

An Instance of Diabolism in Philadelphia Murderous in its Details.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Oct. 30.—Caspar Youngheim was arrested yesterday charged with attempting to murder his wife Christina, his son-in-law August Gockel, his daughter Emma and her infant by means of a novel infernal machine. Gockel, who is a tailor, was at work in his house when suddenly a heavy object, apparently hurled with great force, crashed through a pane of glass in the window back of him, struck the coal-oil lamp above his head, and dropped to the floor. The lamp was shattered in a dozen pieces, and the oil poured over the tailor's face and hands as it was spilled from the vessel. By a fortunate accident the force of the object drove the lamp-top and its burning wick far from the oil, and the lamp was extinguished, otherwise there would have been an instantaneous ignition, and probably a large fire. Gockel was within an ace of approaching and inspecting the object when a terrific explosion shook the house and the tailor was lifted from his feet and prostrated on the floor. At the same time the air of the room was filled with flying glass, shot, burning paper, pieces of lead, iron taps, bolts and rivets, and over all there arose a smell of gunpowder. Gockel was not long in discovering the object, which he had innocently supposed to be a brick or rock, and which had caused the explosion, was an improvised infernal machine in the shape and form of a bomb. He picked up the scattered fragments of the dangerous missile, which consisted of about six inches of malleable lead used for the manufacture of pipe, half a dozen pieces of "chunk" black glass, the crude material employed in bottles, two or three broken bolts, taps, bars and rivets of iron, scraps of burnt paper and several dozen gun-shot.

It was evident that the bomb had been thrown with murderous intent, and being satisfied that an attempt had been made to destroy himself and family, Gockel, as soon as he recovered from the condition in which he had been left by the shock and the excitement, reported the occurrence to the police of the Eighth district. Lieut. Smith detailed Special John H. Hoffman and Officer Keaton to investigate the case, and their investigation resulted in the arrest of Caspar Youngheim. Youngheim, who had served a term of imprisonment in Baltimore for beating his wife, had been ejected by Gockel from his (Gockel's) house for repeated brutality toward his family.

Washburn's Estate.

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 30.—It having been given out that the insane wife of the late Gov. Washburn may possibly, under the laws of Minnesota, be declared the rightful heir of the bulk of the property of which her husband died possessed, and thus set aside the liberal bequests for a public library at LaCrosse and a general hospital at Minneapolis, the daughters of the deceased announce it to be their determination to see that none of the property is diverted from the objects to which it has been bequeathed, and have expressed a desire that the announcement shall be given publicity, in order to set at rest all speculation upon the outcome of the anticipated legal entanglement.

Placing the Responsibility.

BOSTON, Oct. 30.—The Massachusetts board of railroad commissioners have decided that Engineer Watson was responsible for the disaster on the Troy & Greenfield railroad at North Adams, recently, whereby seven persons lost their lives. The management of the road is severely denounced for the loose system which has existed.

The Bark Melville.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 30.—Evidences of the loss of the bark Melville off the coast of British Columbia have been found. All on board are believed to have been lost. Capt. Harlow had with him his wife and two children. The vessel sailed from Shanghai for Victoria, Aug. 18, and was wrecked on the 10th of the present month.

The Springfield Mayoralty.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Oct. 30.—The appellate court of the Third district has decided that William Jayne is the rightful mayor of Springfield. Judge Crook, the acting mayor, has taken an appeal to the supreme court. The mayoralty term which has been in controversy has almost expired.

Fatal Railroad Accident.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 30.—The St. Louis express on the St. Louis air-line, from New Albany, Indiana, was thrown from the track by a misplaced switch forty-eight miles west of the latter town, and the fireman, John McSwain, of Evansville, Indiana, was killed.

Damages Awarded.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 30.—Judge Gresham, of the United States circuit court, has given judgment against a railroad company for $6,000 in the suit of a brakeman whose arm was crushed in consequence of the coupling apparatus of cars being out of repairs.

An Evangelist in Trouble.

ST. JOHNS, N. B., Oct. 30.—Edwin H. Ellis, an evangelist of some note, has been convicted of adultery and a sentence of $400 fine or two years' imprisonment passed upon him. His fine will probably be paid by the woman in the case.

An Unknown Suicide.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Oct. 30.—A man who had taken every precaution to avoid identification committed suicide in a hotel in this city.

GENTLEMEN!

We take pleasure in calling your attention to a money making scheme, which, if successful, will result to our mutual benefit; and if a failure, a few moments time will be the total loss.

We have a line of Clothing, especially designed to compete with tailoring, the style, cut, make and trimmings being equal to anything that can be produced "to order" in this city.—Of course, we can't fit everybody; if we could there would be no occasion for a single person leaving their measure for a suit; but if we can please you both in fabric and fit, it will be a clear saving to your purse of 33⅓ per cent., and we get something out of it ourselves.

Isn't it worth your while to try the experiment?

YOU HAVE EVERYTHING TO WIN!

and nothing to lose but your time. This line of goods can be found at no other store in the city, and is as much superior to ordinary Ready Made Clothing as a BREWSTER BUGGY is to the cheap Cincinnati make

A GREAT FIRE.

Total Destruction of the Mammoth Flint Mill at Fall River, Mass.

The Loss Estimated at Nearly $1,000,000, With the Insurance Distributed in Eastern Companies.

Over Five Hundred Operatives Thrown Out of Employment--The Origin of the Blaze.

FALL RIVER, Mass., Oct. 30.—The manufacturing interests of this city suffered a severe blow in the destruction of one of the largest of the great mills which furnish the industrial life of Fall River. The Flint mills are to-night a mass of ruins, and the work of the flames involves a pecuniary loss of nearly $1,000,000, while five hundred operatives are thrown out of work. The fire started at 3:30 o'clock in the engine room on the lower floor and quickly followed the belts to the roof, so that in a very few moments the flames were bursting from all the windows of the great structure. Its complete destruction was obviously inevitable five minutes after the discovery of the fire. The main building was of granite, five stories high, three hundred feet long by ninety-four feet wide, and built in 1872. The picker house, also burned, adjoined the main mill, was of granite, and three stories high. The firemen had a terrible task to save surrounding property. The Wampanoag mill was close by and was several times on fire.

Appeals for help were telegraphed to Stanton, New Bedford and Newport, and much-needed assistance came by special trains from those cities. So great was the heat that the water which the firemen threw upon the massive walls of the Wampanoag hissed into steam, giving the impression that that structure was about to burst into flames. Wrapped in wet blankets, however, the brave workers held their ground and saved the mill. Soon after 5 o'clock the fire reached its height. The scene was then grand beyond description, and the whole city turned out to watch the destruction of one of the greatest manufacturing establishments on earth. Fire never burned fiercer or faster. After dark the walls began to fall, and the floors dropped to the cellar. So intense was the heat every one was driven back. Paint was blistered on houses over 1,000 feet away. Hundreds began to vacate their houses, expecting the destruction of that portion of the city to follow, but the fury of the flames was soon spent, not obtaining a foothold outside its original location. The fire burned itself out, and at 7:30 o'clock the danger was over. The loss is roughly placed at $1,000,000 to $1,000,000. The insurance aggregates $620,000, all in New England companies. The Manufacturers' Mutual, of this city, loses $40,000, and the Manufacturers' Mutual of Boston $100,000, the latter having the heaviest risk on the mill. Companies in Providence and Boston hold the balance. The capital of the mill is $600,000, held by 200 stockholders. The corporation ran 50,000 spindles, and produced 13,000,000 pieces of print cloth annually.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—Fitzgerald's backers are trying to get up a match between him and Rowell for $5,000, to take place in six months. They are likely to succeed. Fitzgerald is apparently as well as when he entered the race, only thinner.

NATIONAL LAND LEAGUE.

It Assures Egan of Its Confidence in Him.

BUFFALO, Oct. 30.—The president of the Irish National Land league has received the following cable:

PARIS, Oct. 29.—MOONEY, PRESIDENT OF THE IRISH NATIONAL LAND LEAGUE OF AMERICA, BUFFALO: Replying to the charges against the Parliamentary party of having misappropriated large portions of the funds, the total amount paid during three years of expenses of members of parliament is under £2,000, including the expenses of Parnell and Dillon's mission to America, O'Connor's seven months' tour, and Healy's four months; also the expenses of members in the service of the league in Ireland. The libelous statements in the Dublin Irish Times emanate from the notorious Richard Pigott. The National league is making the most satisfactory progress.

"PATRICK EGAN."

Mooney sent the following reply:

"To Patrick Egan, Paris: The American league has undiminished confidence in the integrity and wisdom of the Irish leaders. Continue your work, and no British slanders shall destroy the trust of American sympathizers.

"JAMES MOONEY,
"President I. L. L. of America."

TAR AND FEATHERS.

Grand Forks, Dakota, a Bad Place for a Certain Class of Cattle.

GRAND FORKS, Oct. 30.—Friday afternoon a man went to the school house grounds, hung around the outbuildings, and when the school girls came out exposed his person and made indecent proposals to one of them. The child told her teacher, and when she went home she told her parents. Everything went along quietly, when several determined men signified their intention of treating him to a coat of tar and feathers. They went to the the Griggs house and took him out of bed, walked him over to the railroad bridge, where Thuber, the ravisher, was hanged, and told him he had but a short time to live. At last he partially confessed the deed, but said that he did not intend to force the girl. He was taken to a quiet spot, his clothes stripped off him, and he was covered from head to foot with tar and feathers. He gave his name as Andrew Elliott, from Almond, Ont. He said he would rather take a coat of tar and feathers than be hanged. Nothing has been heard of him to-day. There is a feeling prevailing this morning that the man was not guilty, but his confession stands against him. The principal of the school says he did not hear anything about it.

Gov. Hendricks Ill.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 30.—The Hon. Thomas A. Hendricks has been confined to his bed for several days with what was supposed to be neuralgia in the right foot, but erysipelas has since developed, and his condition is such as to excite alarming apprehensions, insomuch as symptoms of gangrene have developed to a certain extent. It was from this malady that Mr. Hendricks' father and grandfather died. About two years ago Gov. Hendricks suffered a slight paralytic stroke, and since then his health has been gradually failing, but nothing serious was thought of his condition until the present illness.

The Hazard Will Case.

NEWPORT, R. I., Oct. 30.—The jury in the famous Hazard will case failed to agree. The estate is valued at about $500,000. The will directs that the wife shall have no portion of his personal property, but only her dower in his real estate. The greater portion of the property was bequeathed to the Newport hospital in trust. The will is contested by the widow and others, on the ground that the testator was of unsound mind and possessed of delusions concerning his property and kindred.

New York Politics.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—The Post this evening represents a member of the Republican state committee as summing up the situation as follows: "There is no hope whatever of the election of Mr. Folger. Grover Cleveland will be elected by a majority ranging between 30,000 and 40,000. The work of the state committee will be devoted from this time forward to the day of election to an effort to save all the assembly and congressional districts possible. As it is, I have heard members of the state committee express fear that we shall lose at least thirteen of the congressional districts in the state. It is probable that the Democrats will carry three, and possibly four, of the congressional districts on Long island, though in the Third congressional district a strong fight will be made for Darwin R. James. In this city, I think the citizens' tickets, headed by Allan Campbell, will be elected by a small majority. In Brooklyn, where the experience of past years has shown that the voters are not bound by party ties, it is probable that Cleveland will have from 15,000 to 18,000 majority, but I think the machine candidates for county and city offices placed in nomination by the rulers of the Democratic party will be defeated by majorities ranging from 3,000 to 7,000, and we may gain a few members of the assembly."

THE WALKERS.

Ending of the Great Task of the Pedestrians.

The Match Closes with Fitzgerald the Leader.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—The walking match ended at 10 o'clock last night, Fitzgerald having scored 577 miles; Noremac, 567; Herty, 541, and Hughes, 525.

Shortly after 6 o'clock the pedestrians retired to their tents to prepare themselves for their night appearance. As the little troupe of four staggered into their houses it was too evident the strain upon them had been enormous. There was but one thing to cheer them—in a few hours their struggle on the track would be over.

The garden became enlivened at 7 o'clock. There were but faint hopes of getting a crowd to witness the dying struggle of the four pedestrians left of the nine confident men who began the long walk Monday morning.

At 8 o'clock the men came on the track for the last time. A considerable crowd had then gathered in the garden, and the band struck up a lively air. Fitzgerald was dressed in a new suit of white flannel tights. Noremac was freshened up a little in a white racing suit, with a blue silk cap and breechcloth. Herty stuck to his purple colors, and seemed better able to bear the torture of the last miles than the others. Hughes looked showy in a new silk shirt, but no trappings could lighten up the deadly paler of his face and the almost idiotic stare of his sunken eyes. Once, as he was passing the scorers' stand he looked at the clock appealingly, as if mutely begging it to move faster to the end. Some one shouted, "Take him off the track." A woman in one of the boxes said disapprovingly, "Why, the idea, let him go on." The men ran a little together, with the exception of Hughes, whose legs sank under him whenever he attempted to quicken his pace. At 10 o'clock the race was a thing of the past, the score being as follows: Fitzgerald, 577 miles 2 laps; Noremac, 567 miles 4 laps; Herty, 541 miles 1 lap; Hughes, 525 miles.

The gate receipts were $19,367, which, with $7,000 for privileges, made a total of $26,767. Mr. Vanderbilt's $10,000 for rent, and 15 per cent. of the gate-money to the managers for advancing money and assuming the liabilities of the race will make a great hole in the receipts before the regular expenses are reached. Anticipating a great rush, a more liberal outlay was made than at any other race ever given in New York. The expenses of the previous walk reached $20,071.28. Very little will remain to divide among the winners in this one. Including Fitzgerald's 70 per cent. of the stakes, he will probably receive about $3,000; Noremac, with 20 per cent., about $275; and Hughes, who is out of the stakes, about $150. The amounts cannot be correctly given until the bills are all in, which will probably be on Monday. The man who paid $6,500 for the bar and refreshment privileges sold very little, if any, more than enough to repay him. What promised to be a great and successful contest proved a sore disappointment to many.

AT THE BALL.

An Exasperated Farm Hand Seizes an Ax and Chops Up a "Terror."

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Oct. 30.—News reached this city this morning of a shocking affair which happened at Botzum Station, eight miles north of Akron, on the valley road, resulting in the death of John Tetro. It appears that a dance was held at the country tavern of Seth Thomas. All went merrily until the festivities were interrupted and marred by the arrival of Tetro, who is colored. It seems that he is a man of coarse though not brutal instincts, and last evening every particle of discretion and decency which he ordinarily possessed had been stolen away by drink. He repeatedly insulted ladies who were present, and created several disturbances. Efforts to remonstrate with and quiet him were in vain. At last a farm-hand of John Botzum, named Thomas Brooks, became so exasperated at Tetro's conduct that he seized an ax and struck the drunken man upon the head. The blow fairly cleft the skull, and in a short time Tetro breathed his last. Brooks early this morning drove to Akron and delivered himself to the authorities, but refused to talk about his crime. Brooks is described as a young man always ready for a fight. At the preliminary examination a boy testified to having seen Thomas bring the ax from the barn to the hall, and he was accordingly arrested and taken to Akron for complicity in the murder.

An Elopement's End.

CHICAGO, Oct 30.

Miss Anna Hunter, who eloped from Cincinnati a few weeks ago with a New York drummer named Webber, has been arrested, together with her lover, in this city. The two were found living together in a boarding house on Wabash avenue. They were taken before a justice at a late hour, and were charged with adultery. They were released on bonds furnished by H. F. Burney. Webber is said to have a wife living. Miss Hunter is an inexperienced school girl, and belongs to a fashionable Cincinnati family.

Desperate Attempts at Self-Destruction.

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 30.—William Parent, of Iron Mountain, Mich., jumped into the lake here. He was rescued, but afterward leaped from the third-story window of his hotel and broke both his feet.

Mrs. Scoville.

CHICAGO, Oct. 30.

Since the jury in the Scoville case on Saturday found Mrs. Scoville insane, it is understood that she has left the city. Her friends say that she will not go to the asylum, and that she will be supported elsewhere.

The Markets.

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—Business was a little slow in board of trade circles. Corn, pork, and lard received more or less attention, but even in those articles the trading was at best only moderate as compared with the activity witnessed on some of the former days of the week. Wheat was also duller than usual, and in oats, rye and barley the movement was considerably under an average volume. In both grain and provisions operators seemed to favor in an exceedingly strong manner a conservative policy, and consequently the day's speculation was confined largely to "scalping" deals that were covered promptly on a favorable fluctuation in values. Outside speculation orders were unusually limited. It was certainly a quiet Saturday on the floor of the board, though the feeling was healthy and the different markets met with a good support. Corn averaged a shade better than on Friday, and closed at rather full prices. In pork, lard and short ribs there was no change to speak of. Oats were about steady, but in wheat the movement tended in favor of the bears. Cash short ribs were quoted at $14@15, according to age. Shoulders sold for December delivery at 6½c. Flour was again quiet. Wheat, 93½c. Corn, 68c. Oats, 34½c. Rye, 57c. Mess pork, $22. Lard, $11.82½.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—Wheat, cash, ½c lower; options, ½@¾c lower. Corn, strong, ½@1c higher. Pork, $23.12½@23.25.

LIVERPOOL, Oct. 28.—Breadstuffs—Wheat dull; No. 3 spring 8s. Corn, not much doing. Cargoes off Coast—Wheat steady; western red winter advanced 3d. Corn unchanged. To Arrive.—Wheat dull and neglected. Corn steady. Wheat for the United Kingdom and continent dull; corn for the continent in moderate demand. Provisions—Pork 102s. Lard steady; 62s 6d. Bacon, long clear 72s; short clear 74s. Beef 133s. Tallow 44s 6d. Cheese 59s.

IMPORTANT STATEMENT

Of Henry H. Smith, Journal Clerk of the House of Representatives, Author of Smith's Digest of Parliamentary Laws, Through Whose Hands All Congressional Legislation Has Passed for the Last Seven Years.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 28, 1882.

DEAR SIR:—I returned to Washington the 21st, and found your letter of the 16th with slip mailed on the 18th inst, which will explain the delay in replying thereto.

The printed slip purporting to be a "summary" of your "record in congress compiled from the Congressional Record" in relation to bills introduced by you and action thereon, is incorrect in almost every particular, and grossly unfair and unjust to you.

The assertion that 98 of your bills were "killed in committee and never reported" is so absolutely ridiculous that it ought not to impose on even a freshly recruited marine.

Bills are not "killed in committee and never reported," for the simple reason that they cannot be killed that way.

They may be withheld in committee without action, but to be "killed" they must be reported adversely to the house and laid on the table. The mere fact that a committee fails to report a particular bill to the house, is no proof that it is hostile to it, for fully two-thirds if not four-fifths of all the bills that are introduced are never reported to the house. As a rule, committees endeavor to accomplish by "general legislation" in one bill the relief sought in a dozen, fifty or even one hundred bills, as was the case in the bill (H. R., 5224) to relieve certain soldiers of the late war from the charge of desertion, which was reported by General Henderson from the committee on military affairs as a substitute for over one hundred bills. This bill became a law and the original bills remain in the committee. The same was true of the bill (H. R. 3251) authorizing the postmaster general to adjust certain claims of postmasters for losses by burglary, fire or other unavoidable causes; which was reported as a substitute for some seventy or more individual bills, which bill also became a law. I might enumerate more, but there are scores of such cases and these two will illustrate the point.

A private or "relief" bill does not necessarily involve an appropriation of money. A pension bill is a "relief" bill and so is a bill relative to the military record of John Doe, and so is a bill to settle the accounts of any civil or military officer, to meet some technicality in the laws or ruling of the accounting officers of the Treasury Department.

During the three sessions of the 46 congress 7,076 bills and joint resolutions were introduced in the house and 2,351 in the Senate, aggregating in both houses 10,027, of this number 489 became laws, or about 1½ per cent.

During the first session of the 47th congress 7,190 bills and joint resolutions were introduced in the house and 2,286 in the senate, aggregating in both houses 9,476, of this number 577 became laws of which 296 are public and about 1 and 6—10 per cent.

There are now on the three calendars of the house 549 bills, of which number 245 are public, and 304 private. It is of course difficult to estimate the proportion of this number which will become laws during the coming session, but in view of action on the report of the "tariff commission" which will consume at least one month, it is safe to say that not over 150 of this number will reach the president.

As to the resolution appropriating money out of the house contingent fund for the payment of the funeral expenses of President Garfield, I will state that it was reported by Mr. Page, from the select committee to audit such expenses, on Saturday, Feb. 4, immediately after the reading of the journal, and was stated to be the unanimous report of that committee. There was no report accompanying the resolution, and no debate whatever was had upon it, and, as a matter of personal knowledge I will say that there were not twenty members present when it passed.

As a rule there are, except on Saturdays between forty and fifty members present at close of the reading of the journal—unless it be unusually long—but on that day it was read in less than five minutes; the preceeding day, Friday, being "private bill day," and the whole day being consumed in the consideration of one bill, viz: to release the Philadelphia & Reading Railroad from certain taxes, which you may remember, though reported unanimously from the committee on ways and means, was almost unanimously beaten in the house.

It is the practice of members to devote Saturdays to "department work," and it is always difficult to get (or keep) a quorum on that day. Indeed, it was sometime before a quorum could be secured on the same day the said resolution passed, while the house was considering in committee of the whole, the post office appropriation bill—a bill of considerable importance.

During the 11 sessions of your congressional service, you have introduced 124 bills and joint resolutions, of which 11 were duplications, that is the same bill introduced in more than one congress, thus reducing the aggregate to 113, of which number 32 were introduced during the last session.

Of this number 6 were reported favorably, 6 passed the house and 5 passed the senate and became laws. One was reported adversely and laid on the table.

I have taken the pains to go through the list of members alphabetically, and herewith give a list composed of thirty members from 20 states showing the number of bills introduced by each, and action thereon, viz.

Anderson, (Kansas)	72
Bingham, (Penn.)	85
Browne, (Ind.)	48
Butterworth, (Ohio)	43
Carpenter, (Iowa)	58
Cobb, (Ind.)	58
Dezendorf, (Va.)	49
Dunell, (Minn.)	87
Ford, (Mo.)	64
Gibson, (La.)	45
Haskell, (Kansas)	87
Hiscock, (N. Y.)	90
Houk, (Tenn.)	191
King, (La.)	55
McCoid, (Iowa)	41
Morey, (Ohio)	41
Neal, (Ohio)	58
Page, (Cal.)	42
Pettibone, (Tenn.)	91
Phelps, (Conn.)	67
Pound, (Wis.)	99
Ryan, (Kansas)	88
Spaulding, (Mich.)	41
Strait, (Minn.)	44
Thomas, (Ill.)	51
Townsend, (Ill.)	71
Upson, (Texas)	78
Urner, (Md.)	176
Valentine, (Neb.)	51
Vance, (N. C.)	74
Total number introduced	1,940

Of this number 183 were reported favorably, 87 passed the house and 58 passed the senate and became laws, while 119 were reported adversely and laid on the table. If this is not a favorable showing for you then I am at a loss to understand what would be.

I remember very well your amendments to the rules, particularly that relating to roll calls, which accomplished a saving not only of considerable time on each call—and consequently money—but really insured greater accuracy.

During the 45th congress there were 35 joint resolutions proposing amendments to the constitution introduced in the house, of which number but one passed, viz: House resolutions 201, prohibiting payment of claims of disloyal persons for property injured or destroyed during the late war. The said joint resolution passed under a suspension of rules, but did not pass the senate. (This resolution was Mr. Williams', drawn and introduced in his handwriting without the change of a word. Mr. Williams' name being to low on the list for suspension of the rules to be called that session he handed the amendment to his friend Mr. Conger, of Michigan, who introduced it when his name was called, and it thus became known as the "Conger amendment;" but Mr. Conger only said, I move to suspend the rules and pass the following resolution:" and the vote was taken without a word. Mr. Conger stated to his fellow members that it was Williams' amendment, and it was so explained in the public press.

During the 46th congress, 34 joint resolutions and one bill were introduced proposing amendments to the constitution, but none were passed or even reported; and during the last session of the present congress, 30 were introduced and none were passed or reported.

I believe this covers substantially, all the points you state in your letter. I am very respectfully yours,

HENRY H. SMITH,
Journal Clerk,
House of Representatives.

Dan Pelter's Wife's Philosophy.

"Mr. Dan'l Pelter', wouldn't ye like ter see our Chubby grow up to be a good and smart and respected man?" asked Dan's wife, as she looked up from weeding the garden to where Dan sat, on the fence, debating with himself mentally whether to go fishing or to hoe his corn.

"Sartinly I du, don't ye?"

"Yes, but Dan I'm losin' hopes."

"What d'ye mean?"

"Did ye ever know a noble maple to spring up from er thorn bush?"

"No."

"Did ye ever see a little sprout come up and wizzle down because the light and sun was shet out from it by great, ungainly and worthless, nasty trees?"

"Yes, I seen 'em many er time."

"That's jes' how 'tis now. Chubby is a bright, straight boy. He had natural disposition good enuff. But, Dan'l, yer a shuttin' the glorious sun and light out from thet ere boy."

"Mrs. Pelter, will you jes' explain yer pursnel remarks?"

"Dan'l, yer don't set an egsample of thrift an' industry an' good habits afore that boy. Yer don't help him. Yer don't instruct him. Yer never tole him that ten times ten are a hundred. Yer never showed him the nobleness of noble sentiments. Yer never tole him ter be honest. Yer never tried to cultivate his manners. Most men who succeed in the world owe much of it to their good manners. I see ye yisterday stan' by an' let Chubby sass Captain Sallin. Don't I see that Judge Whitehouse an' Dr. Brickitt an' Parson Tilden owe the esteem in which they are held to their genial, gentlemanly manners as well as to their skill an' other ability! Now, Dan, if Chubby patterns after yer example in manners, how long will it take him to get to be a Judge? If he follows yer footsteps in idleness how long before he will be a skilled physician?

"You don't like our minister jes' cos' he ain't cultivated. Do ye want Chubby to be such a botch at a perfession. Yer don't like Sam Shom, the carpenter, cos' ye say he can't du things well. What are ye a doin' to teach Chubby skill, or morals, or manners? A father who has brought a child into the world is guilty of the greatest breach of good faith thet a man can commit if he does not try to cultivate thet child up to his best individual efforts."

"I hain't no opportunity."

"You have plenty of opportunity to help yer boy by a good example, and by talking properly with him and telling him freely and often things that he ought to know."—Detroit Free Press.

—Some of the English Bishops are trying to get up a new calendar of saints, the object being to give some of the old Saxon saints a show. These worthies have been neglected for a good many years, and it is now proposed to honor them in their own country rather than the foreign saint, who was no better than he should have been anyway.—N. Y. Graphic.

Popular Death Notions.

There are two popular notions about death that, though they contradict one another, have adherents throughout Christendom. One is that what is called a natural death takes place with the ebb of the tide; the other, that it occurs after midnight, in what are called the small hours before dawn. The records show, as might have been expected, that the Black Rider, who respects neither age nor worldly condition, is indifferent in timing his visits. In this city last week the greatest number of deaths took place at eleven o'clock in the day, when there were seven; but there were five deaths in each of the hours of three, four, seven and ten o'clock in the morning, and three, four and seven o'clock in the evening. Four persons died at five o'clock, six o'clock and nine o'clock in the morning, and at one o'clock and six o'clock in the evening, and three persons died at each of the hours of one and two o'clock a. m. and eight, ten and eleven o'clock p. m. There happened to be no deaths at five o'clock in the evening. There were ten more deaths before noon than after it.

More than half of those who died were children under five, of summer ailments. Hotels were the scenes of ten deaths; institutions, 120; tenements, 409. Only one death on the sixth floor of a house is recorded, though there were 179 on second floors. The death rate is put at 20.71 in 1,000, but the Board of Health estimates the population at 1,284,524, which is, according to popular belief, a quarter of a million less than the actual number of people in the city.—N. Y. Sun.

Incredible.

F. A. Scratch, druggist, Rutheven, Ontario, writes: "I have the greatest confidence in your BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS In one case with which I am personally acquainted their success was almost incredible. One lady told me that half a bottle did her more good than hundreds of dollars' worth of medicine she had previously taken." Price $1.00.

The Picnic.

If you want to be happy, go to a picnic. Go in an express wagon; go in a crowd. In the front end of the wagon have lunch baskets, pickle jars, ice, etc. Ride ten or twelve miles to the picnic grounds. The seats of the wagon are narrow, hard and shaky. The day is hot; the flies are thick; the road is dusty. Each passing team sends volumes of dust among the picnickers. At first the holiday-makers are gay and polite, but the long jolting seemed to shake up their peevish thoughts to the top, like the biggest peas in a basket, and long before the end of the ride conversation drops to "How much further is it?" and "O, I wish we were there!" At noon the grounds are reached, and the picnickers are glad to alight and rest their aching bones. The grounds are in "a woods." Two or three picnic parties are there already. In fact, the woods are dusty with the trampling of innumerable picnics. No wild flowers, ferns or brakes are in those woods; nothing but a few weeds and a little scanty grass. However, there are incredible quantities of old dinner-papers, egg-shells, bottles, tin cans of every species, rags, crumbs, crusts and chicken bones scattered about, and there are myriads of lively bugs and beetles racing everywhere, eating the crumbs. The picnic begins with dinner. You sit on a narrow, wiggling board, at a low table made of boards. Knives and forks and cups are scarce; therefore much gnawing of greasy bones takes place, and much passing a thick teacup, filled with lukewarm, smoky tea. Each offers his own, and gingerly partakes of his neighbor's provisions. Glory is in the heart of the lady, who brought cocoanut cake and three kinds of fine sandwiches; envy in the heart of her who hurried off with nothing but baker's bread, cheese, sardines and dried beef. Having feasted to repletion with crumbly frosted cake and smashed jelly cake, the picnickers proceed to row themselves about in boats. The stream at the picnic grounds runs so that the sun beats down upon it all the afternoon. The water is rather muddy, and those who attempt to row in the shade of the boughs on the shore smear the girls' hats with the dripping leaves of trees and bushes. The rowers toil in midstream with blistering hands and reeking faces. The girls' frizzes string out and their muslins grow limp and damp. By and by a shower comes up. All take to the wagon and sit there, damp and bedraggled. One belated individual struggles under the table, crouching among bugs and crumbs. The shower being soon over, back to the boats they go. That shower only makes the heat sticky. The fork of the stream becomes a toasting-fork. Can't say which you long for most, to get out of the hot woods into the boats, or to get back to the woods from the glistening, flaring stream. The low afternoon sun shines straight into the woods. People have to stand behind tree-trunks to obtain shade. Supper time comes at last, bringing a repetition of dinner, except that the cake is a little crumbier, the sandwiches a little staler, and the evening sunshine pours across the table and feasters. Then follows the long ride home by moonlight, mostly in silence broken by a few dull remarks and a little singing. The children are asleep, and melancholy thoughts arise as to the paucity of human pleasures and the strangeness of calling a picnic one of them. But you are ever after happy because you do not have to go to another picnic.—Indianapolis Journal.

A Hop-Picking Machine.

A letter from Cooperstown, in the N. Y. Post, gives this account of the operations of an improved hop-picking machine now at work in a large yard near that village, which is confessed not to be much of an improvement on the human machine: It is a simple contrivance, which the patentee, who was operating it, acknowledged to be as yet in an imperfect and experimental state. It consists of a small set of rollers geared upon bearings which separate or draw close together by means of spiral springs. The hop vine is cut from the poles in pieces, and is fed between the rollers, butt end first. The vine and leaves pass between the rollers, drop down upon a receiver, and are carried to a table where two persons are kept busy picking out the leaves that may follow the course of the hops. The machine operates somewhat like the common clothes-wringer, the hops, being more bulky than the vines and the leaves, breaking off when they come to the rollers, as a shirt-button is torn from its fastening while the shirt passes smoothly between the rollers which press the moisture from it. Last year this hop-picking machine was operated by foot-power, the man who fed in the vines also plying a foot-treadle as a motive power. The patentee has this year geared his machine to power, which is operated by a sheep. The power is the common tread-mill used by farmers who do their churning by dog or sheep power. When the writer saw this hop-picking machine in operation it was run by a medium-sized, mild-eyed ewe, whose plaintive bleat now and then pleaded to be released from the endless up-hill journey. Near by two other wool-bearers were tethered waiting their turn on the tread-mill. By thus changing sheep frequently the three are able to keep the picking-machine running throughout the day. To operate the machine to its full capacity requires two persons to fetch the vines from the poles, one to feed and two to pick out the leaves that drop down among the hops. The five persons who are required to attend it could pick nearly as many hops as the machine does.

The Extravagant Tailor.

Gilhooley, who was very much in debt, happening to pass down Austin avenue, looked into a restaurant, and saw Snip, his tailor, with some friends, regaling themselves with champagne and tempting viands.

"What does this extravagance mean?" asked Gilhooley, who is remarkable for his impudence, as he stalked into the restaurant.

"It is none of your business!" said the tailor, defiantly.

"Yes it is my business. Here you have been dunning me for the last two years to pay you for that pair of pants you made for me, saying that you needed your money, whereas, if you lived within your means, and did not guzzle champagne, you would not have to bother gentlemen by sending them bills. You would even have money to lend gentlemen who patronize you, if you were to give up your extravagant and gluttonous habits," retorted Gilhooly.

The tailor replied so impudently that Gilhooley has concluded to withdraw his custom from the fellow.—Texas Siftings.

—The Blackwell's Island ferry has indeed a pitiable class of passengers. The up trip carries the convicts under sentence, while the returning boat brings those who are released. For more than forty years this coming and going of misery has been in operation, increasing very year.—N. Y. Letter.

Brieflets.

—A good shower on Saturday evening.

—Fay Templeton at the opera house to-night.

—Thunder, lightning and rain made up the weather to-day.

—Fay Templeton to-night is a fact well worth remembering.

—Congressman Williams will speak at Johnstown this evening.

—A hand-organ on wheels has been furnishing music on our streets to-day.

—Hon. W. F. Vilas, of Madison, will speak in this city on Saturday evening next, in behalf of the independents.

—Read Mattie McCullagh & Co's announcement of new goods. They have a splendid assortment of millinery goods.

—We are glad to state that Mrs. H. D. McKinney, who has been quite ill for the past two weeks, is rapidly recovering.

—Officer Beedle gathered in a drunken tramp last night, and to-day the wanderer was sent to jail for 30 days.—Beloit Free Press.

—The Young Men's independent club will meet at the office of Clarence L. Clark to-morrow, Tuesday evening, at 7 o'clock. All who desire to become members are very earnestly requested to be present.

—The Chicago & Northwestern railroad company will build a new iron bridge across Rock river, in place of the present structure, next season. The old bridge will be repaired this fall or winter. —Beloit Free Press.

—Remember that next Wednesday is the only chance that the people of Janesville will have of hearing Esmeralda, one of the most charming dramas of the time. Buy your reserved seats at Prentice & Evenson's.

—Rev. Mr. Curtis, of Court Street church, officiated at two funerals yesterday. That of the late Mrs. McNitt in the forenoon; and that of the late George Yeo, in the town of Center, in the afternoon, both being well attended.

—The weaving room of the New McLean manufacturing company at Monterey was fully lighted with the electric light during the storm to-day, and Superintendent McLean is highly gratified with its success. He says it is immense.

—One hundred and nine money orders were paid at the Janesville post office the past week amounting to $2,297.28, and eighty-one orders were issued calling for $829.79, the fees being $9.30, making a total business for the week of $3,148.77.

—We call the attention of the lovers of a good cheap cigar, to the new advertisement of Mr. Julius Hammerschlag, of the west side cigar store. He keeps all kinds of smokers goods, and consumers of the "weed" will do well to give him a call and sample his stocks.

—William Jude, of Fulton, accidentally shot himself in the left hand yesterday, while carelessly handling a loaded revolver. The ball entered the palm of the hand and passed up to the wrist, where the ball was taken out by Dr. Palmer.

—Dr. St. John was called upon to mend a broken arm of a young son of Mr. Thomas Arthur, who lives about three miles south of this city. The young man was playing on the Northwestern railroad track, and some way fell, breaking his left arm near the wrist joint.

—The small-admission-at-the-door spiritual seance drew a good sized audience at the opera house last night, but the show was not worth the small admission charged, twenty-five cents. It was generally conceded by those present, that as far as "spirits" were concerned, the seance was a failure.

—Smith & Son have some excellent bargains to offer the public in the line of good and fashionable ready made clothing. They always keep a mammoth stock in their store and sell all garments for just what they are, and no mistakes allowed, and only one price at that. Read their advertisement, and then visit their store and be convinced of the truth.

—The funeral of the late Miss Kitty Boylen, who died at her home in Monterey on Saturday evening, took place at St. Patrick's church at 9 o'clock this forenoon, Rev. Father McGinnity officiating. The remains were taken to the Catholic cemetery at Oakhill for interment, followed by a very large concourse of sympathizing friends.

—The Racine people had a test of their new steam-fire engines on Thursday and Friday last, which did not turn out very satisfactorily, owing to some defect or tampering with one of the engines. The engine tested on Thursday gave general satisfaction, but on bringing the second one out on Friday morning, it did not do good work, and further tests were deferred until experts from the manufactory could be sent for. They are both of the Clapp & Jones build. On Thursday one of the engines raised 19 pounds of steam from cold water, in seven minutes, and with 110 pounds of steam, 200 feet of hose 1⅜ inch nozzle, threw a stream 219 feet, which is not as good by far as either one of our engines can do, although the Journal gives them credit for doing good work.

The Weather.

At seven o'clock this morning the thermometer registered 48 degrees above zero and at 1. p. m. 54 above. Raining most of the day.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30, 1 a. m.—The following are the indications for to-day:

Upper Lake Region—Upper Mississippi and Missouri Valleys—Increasing cloudiness, rain in the northern portions, slightly warmer southeast to southwest winds, in southern and in the eastern portions lower barometer.

Fell Down.

Mr. Albert Anderson, York street, Buffalo, fell down stairs and severely bruised his knee. A few applications of Dr. Thomas' ECLECTRIC OIL entirely cured him.
Sold by Palmer & Stevens and Sherer & Co.

Mr. Lovejoy Wants to Decline.

The Hon. A. P. Lovejoy has written his declination and placed it in the hands of Mr. G. H. Davey, chairman of the second assembly district committee. The committee have taken no action on the matter as yet, and will not until after a meeting of the committee, which will take place at the office of Mr. Norcross, at half-past seven o'clock this evening. All the members of the republican second assembly district committee are requested to be present.

It is hoped that Mr. Lovejoy will reconsider his determination to decline the nomination for the assembly. He would serve the people well in the legislature and without doubt could be elected. He is a man in whom the people have large confidence, and the business interests of the city call for his election.

Struck By Lightning.

Mr. Peter Conlon, of the town of Rock, was struck by lightning at eleven o'clock this forenoon. Mr. Conlon, who lives in the Tripp neighborhood, about four miles from the city, went to his barn for the purpose of sheltering himself and team from the storm, and while he was caring for his horses, a bolt of lightning struck the roof of the barn, passed down through the loft striking Mr. Conlon on the left shoulder, and then passed down the left front side of the body to his foot, turning, came back and out at the top of his boot. The lightning made a blister the entire length of Mr. Conlon's body about four inches wide, and completely paralyzed the body. Mrs. Conlon heard an unusual noise in the barn among the horses, and went out from the house, and found her son lying upon the floor. He was sensible, and told his mother what had happened. Dr. St. John was immediately called, and the unfortunate man was properly cared for. No other damage was done.

Municipal Court.

The court on Saturday evening, adjourned the Stuart examination until 3 o'clock this afternoon, when it was understood Dr. Palmer's testimony would be taken, but it is doubtful if that case will be taken up to day.

This morning the case of the state vs. Thompson was taken up and was not disposed of at 3 o'clock. Thompson is being tried by a jury, the charge being highway robbery. J. W. Sale is for the state, and J. B. Doe, Jr., for the prosecution.

THE LARGEST and finest assortment of Hair goods ever brought to Janesville, can be seen at Mrs. William Saddlers Opera house block.

HALE'S HONEY of HOREHOUND and TAR has a far larger sale than any other cough medicine.

PIKE'S TOOTHACHE DROPS cure in one minute.

Fay Templeton.

The Fay Templeton company have arrived in the city, and will perform the comic opera of "Billee Taylor" at Myers' opera house this evening. It is rare to find good acting, good singing and a good voice in one person. Seth Crane is such an exception. J. C. Armand, of the same company, may be justly credited the very best tenor in comic opera. With Fay Templeton, the star, Alice Vane, Marie Celine, John Templeton, Edward Morris, and the other artists, a cast is made unrivaled. This will be the first presentation of Billee Taylor in Janesville, and the house should be crowded.

Incredible.

F. A. Scratch, druggist, Rutheven, Ontario, writes: "I have the greatest confidence in your BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS In one case with which I am personally acquainted their success was almost incredible. One lady told me that half a bottle did her more good than hundreds of dollars' worth of medicine she had previously taken." Price $1.00.
Sold by Palmer & Stevens and Sherer & Co.

Personal.

—Mr. Giles Fisher remains in about the same condition he was Saturday—very low.

Mr. Orion Sutherland has returned from the lake, where he met with considable success shooting ducks, —Mr. B. B. Harrison, who has been visiting friends in this city for a few days past, returned to Chicago this morning.

—Mrs. M. R. Brooks has just returned from a pleasant six weeks' visit at Topeka, Kansas, with her daughter, Mrs. H. C. Hadley.

—Mr. Wm. Went, of Chicago, and Mr. Cadwell, of Cincinnati, were in the city on Saturday, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. Sutherland. They have gone to Lake Koshkonong for a few days sport duck shooting.

—Mr. Charles A. Carter will leave Janesville on Wednesday and will take up his residence in Milwaukee, where he expects to hold a position in the office of Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway company. Mrs. Carter has a large music class in Milwaukee, which requires much of her attention, and this with the business offer mentioned above, influenced Mr. Carter to make the change.

Put this in you Pipe.

"Frank P. Warner came into our store to purchase a sample bottle of Zopesa for a friend, and stated that he (Mr. Warner) was afflicted with kidney and liver troubles for five years, and had paid $200 or $300 doctor's bills, and has now been completely cured by the use of two large bottles and one sample bottle of Zopesa. He was so bad at one time that he lost 37 pounds of flesh, but after using Zopesa claims that he is a sound man, and now weighs 145 pounds. He was loud in its praise, and readily consented to allow us to use his name for reference.

Again, Mrs. Forbes, wife of Mr. R. G. Forbes, Tilsonburg, Ont., through Mr. C. Thomson, druggist, says: "She was ailing for years with Biliousness and Dyspepsia and was reduced to a mere skeleton, but through the use of Zopesa entirely recovered and has gained 28 pounds."

We could present very many such, but have not the time nor space. Zopesa is not a cure-all, but acts directly upon the liver, kidneys, and stomach, correcting the digestion, giving activity to the liver and health to the urine. This corrects the whole system and the blood becomes pure. Sold by Prentice & Evenson.

A NEW ENTERPRISE.

The Janesville Barb Wire Company Organized and Ready for Business.

On Saturday evening arrangements were completed by which another manufacturing establishment is to be added to the wealth of the Bower City. Messrs. James Harris and D. P. Smith having purchased the barb wire works and machinery of Fish and Connell, at Joliet, Illinois, have organized the Janesville Barb Wire company, for the purpose of manufacturing barb wire in this city. The Janesville company will immediately construct a shop on the lot next south of the Janesville machine company's works, 32x75, feet, and will lease their power from the Janesville Machine company. The Janesville Barb Wire company have been licensed by Messrs. Washburn & Moen, of Worcester, Mass., (who control all patents on barb wire) to manufacture 500 tons, of what is known as the Ross four-pointed steel barb wire, per year. The Janesville company will run six machines in manufacturing the wire, each of which will turn out from ten to fifteen hundred pounds per day, and the product of the establishment will amount to about $100,000 per year, giving employment to fifteen or twenty hands. This new enterprise will be in full operation here in about six weeks, in the mean time the Janesville company will carry on the works at Joliet. This new company will be an important addition to our manufacturing interests, and Messrs. Harris & Smith are to be congratulated on having precured the right to manufacture in our city an article which is in such universal demand as the barb wire.

That our readers may know to what extent barb wire is manufactured and used in the United States, we will state that the royalty paid to Messrs. Washburn & Moen, the patentees, amounts to over $1,000,000 per year, and the demand for it greatly increasing year by year.

Messrs. Harris & Smith will continue the manufacture of their patent safety lamp, as usual, supplying all demands for that useful and safe article.

TUTT'S PILLS

A DISORDERED LIVER IS THE BANE

of the present generation. It is for the Cure of this disease and its attendants, SICK-HEADACHE, BILIOUSNESS, DYSPEPSIA, CONSTIPATION, PILES, etc., that TUTT'S PILLS have gained a world-wide reputation. No Remedy has ever been discovered that acts so gently on the digestive organs, giving them vigor to assimilate food. As a natural result, the Nervous System is Braced, the Muscles are Developed, and the Body Robust.

Chills and Fever.

E. RIVAL a Planter at Bayou Sara, La., says: My plantation is in a malarial district. For several years I could not make half a crop on account of bilious diseases and chills. I was nearly discouraged when I began the use of TUTT'S PILLS. The result was marvelous: my laborers soon became hearty and robust, and I have had no further trouble.

They relieve the engorged Liver, cleanse the Blood from poisonous humors, and cause the bowels to act naturally, without which no one can feel well.
Try this remedy fairly, and you will gain a healthy Digestion, Vigorous Body, Pure Blood, Strong Nerves, and a Sound Liver. Price, 25 Cents. Office, 35 Murray St., N. Y.

TUTT'S HAIR DYE.

GRAY HAIR or WHISKERS changed to a GLOSSY BLACK by a single application of this DYE. It imparts a natural color, and acts instantaneously. Sold by Druggists, or sent by express on receipt of One Dollar.

AN

Open Letter

TO THE PUBLIC.

In these days of powerful influence, when every known device is employed by parties interested, to convert the people to their belief; and misrepresentation and fraud is rampant in the land, a large number of the people know not which way to turn nor in whom to place confidence.

OUR PLATFORM !

Appeals to the masses, and recognizes no political or financial standing, age, color or sex. It does not seek patronage through secret, religious or other society channels, but depends upon its merits alone in extending

Equal Rights to All,

and strict adherence to the truth. When we tell you we have the largest assortment of NEW goods in this part of the state, we are willing to back the statement with any reasonable amount: when one of our salesmen sells you a garment for all wool and it proves otherwise, we will refund the money and you can keep the article, and if you can buy goods in our store for less than prices marked in plain figures, we will

Make You a Present

of the best hat in stock an charge it up to the salesman.

WHAT MORE CAN WE DO FOR YOU

except to make prices right? And how can we afford to do otherwise?

Goods may occasionally be purchased at other stores for less than our uniform prices, so do men sometimes

Win at Three Card Monte,

but if you watch them closely you will find they are cappers for the game.

As the cold weather approaches, and the demand for warm clothing increases, we urge upon every member of the male sex,, and those interested in their comfort and looks, the necessity of calling at

SMITH & SON'S.
One Price Clothing House.

SPECIAL NOTICE

TO THE LADIES!

—:o:—

A Grand Opening of Ladies Underwear in the past Week

AT THE

NEW YORK CASH STORE !

In July I made a contract with several Mills for a very large stock of underwear at a very low price, in consequence of buying a very large amount. We have opened in the past week 600 Dozen of various styles and qualities of Ladies' Underwear, among which are 450 Dozen of regular seventy-five cent goods that we shall put on the market at fifty cents.

These goods we defy any house in the State to match. Also some very fine White and the best Scarlet goods ever offered in this market.

M. C. SMITH.

LOOK OUT!

FOR

GOOD GOODS

AND

Low Prices

AT THE

MAMMOTH STORE

OF

J. M. BOSTWICK & SONS

Anticipating a large trade we have bought one of the largest and best stock of goods ever introduced into Southern Wisconsin, which will be sold at prices that will be popular with all the people. Read and note every word and if we do not do just as we say we will, call ourselves no dry goods men and do not buy one dollar's worth.

Our first article we place before you that we call very cheap is one case of all wool Camelette which we place upon our counters at 50 cents per yard, former price 70 to 80 cents. These goods are all wool in all the new shades, and for a genteel dress at a low price there are no goods in the market to compare with them. They are 40 inches wide.

We place upon our counter 20 pieces of American Colored Silk, at $1.25, this is the best value known for the money. And in Black Silks we beat the entire party. We will give you Black Silks for 8, 10 and 12 shillings, never before known for the money. An examination of this department will verify the fact.

In Black and Colored Cashmeres we are without a rival in Rock county, so say all the ladies who have seen them

In Cheap Dress Goods we have ten cases in all the new shades which we are selling from 6¼ to 12½ cents.

This is very cheap, a great many of the dark colors are much better for comfortables than any cheap print, and wear much longer.

Ladies Cloths and Flannels we have an endless variety and sell them all at low prices.

In Cloaks and Shawls we have the largest variety ever shown by us, and far superior to any stock this side of Chicago.

In Velv and Cloth Shawls we have a beautiful line. Call and see them, ladies

In White Bed Blankets we have a beautiful stock and all cheap.

We have one case of the celebrated Eagle and Phœnix Cotton Bed Blankets far superior to Wool and at much less price. We will sell you the 1¼ Blanket for $5.00, as good value as any $8.00 Wool Blanket in the market. Call in and see the novelty and it will please you.

Bleached, Brown and Red Table linen in large variety and at popular prices.

1,000 dozen Linen Towels cheap, and good. We will sell you the best 25 cent Towel in the United States.

Ladies' and Children's Underwear We absolutely stand without rival in this department. Our 50 cent Ladies' Vest is simply grand. In gentlemen's Underwear we stand far ahead of our competitors. Our 50 cent and one dollar Vest cannot fail to please you every time.

Our Ladies' Cloths and Ulster Cloth are simply splendid. The line that we bought at the great closing sale of A. T Stewart's, are selling rapidly, and at prices far below any goods offered in the State. Give this line a look and you will be more than suited.

Our Flannel Department is filled with desirable goods; Red, Grey, Blue, White and all fancy colors, for ladies' and children's wear, and at popular prices.

Our Glove and Hosiery department the best we ever had and at prices truly surprising. Our nine cent Hose, a wonder to everybody. We received to-day 50 dozen of Hose at one shilling, that lead the van. Our two and three shilling Wool Hose are the best ever offered. It surprises ourselves to think we can give you as good an article for the money in this line as we can. Do not fail to see them.

Our Lace Department, full and replete with good and cheap goods.

Our Carpet stock full with all the new novelties. We have the only genuine Auxminster Moquette Carpet in the city. In this we will refer you to any carpe house in the United States.

Oilcloth, Linoleum and Store Rugs, in large variety, all at popular prices.

Respectfully yours,

J. M. BOSTWICK & SONS.
